Speakers' Biographies for Webinar Series #2, July 22, 2020

ERIN LUTJENS works as a part of the Mobile Crisis Support Team for Hope Cooperative based out of the Sacramento Sheriff's Department. She graduated from UC Davis with a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology and is currently a first-year Masters student in Watt's College of Social work, pursuing her LCSW license. She was formally diagnosed with Bipolar 2 at the age of 14, but remembers showing symptoms at about 12-years-old. As a teen, she experimented with drugs and alcohol, relied heavily on self-harm, and had attempted suicide on two occasions. After her diagnosis, she spent years in therapy began taking medications for mood swings, depression, anxiety, and paranoia. She will be sharing her story of how with proper treatment, a mental illness does not have to stop anyone from perusing their dreams.

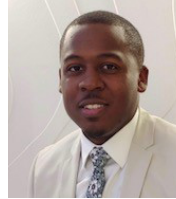

JUSTIN WHITCOMB is an Associate Governmental Program Analyst with the Department of Health Care Services (DHCS), Federal Grants Section (FGS), Program Administration Unit (PAU). Justin has over 10 years of grants administration experience, particularly with the Community Mental Health Services Block Grant (MHBG) and Projects for Assistance in Transition from Homelessness (PATH) grant, and currently represents California as the State's PATH Contact, participating in numerous national homelessness workgroups and conferences. Justin currently serves as the lead fiscal analyst for the MHBG and PATH, responsible for invoicing, allocation, budgeting, and reporting.

JEANETTE TRIGEIRO is a Staff Services Manager I with the Department of Health Care Services (DHCS), Federal Grants Section (FGS), Program Fiscal Unit (PFU). Jeanette has more than 30 years of work experience, which includes working both at the Federal and State level. She has most recently worked as an analyst with the DHCS Prevention Section to help develop the State's Evidence-Based Practices Workgroup and provide technical assistance on the Strategic Prevention Framework and the Primary Prevention SUD Data System. She currently oversees all fiscal aspects of DHCS's federal grants programs and provides training and technical assistance to staff and counties on invoicing, allocation, budgeting and reporting.

ANDREW DILL started his career with the Department of Health Care Services Drug Medi-Cal Audit Section over three years ago. He graduated from Sacramento State University in 2016 with a degree in Accounting. His primary role since joining the Drug Medi-Cal Audit Section has been to perform Fiscal and Compliance Audits. He has worked with management in the development in a training course for DHCS Auditors throughout the State and is involved with the updating of the audit settlement process.

JARRETT DAVIS, MA, has been with the Department of Health Care Services (DHCS) for 7 years, holding a variety of positions. Currently he is responsible for overseeing the annual cost settlements for Specialty Mental Health Services (SMHS) and Drug Medi-Cal (DMC). Throughout his time at DHCS, he has worked extensively with SUD providers and stakeholders; participating in onsite monitoring, technical assistance, cost-report settlements, and the DMC Organized Delivery System-Waiver activities. He holds a Master's degree in Public Health from the University of San Francisco.

NAHEED KHAN has over six years of experience in Accounting and Auditing in the private and public sector. Naheed Khan started his career with Department of Health Care Services Drug Medi-Cal Audit Section over six years ago. Over the years, he has trained and developed new staff in performing fiscal and compliance audits. Naheed graduated from Sacramento State University in 2012 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Accounting.

ELIA GALLARDO, ESQ., is the Director of Government Affairs at the County Behavioral Health Directors Association of California, where she oversees CBHDA's policy work related to the Mental Health Services Act, among other responsibilities. For over 20 years, Elia has worked in diverse capacities in the health care and behavioral health arena. Prior to joining CBHDA, Elia was the Director of Health Policy Research at the Insure the Uninsured Project, where she monitored and analyzed federal, state and local policies, legislation and research affecting health care coverage, access and health care delivery in California. Elia was the Executive Director of Government Relations and Program Oversight with the Alameda Alliance for Health, a county-initiated Medi-Cal managed care plan serving almost 300,000 Medi-Cal beneficiaries. Prior to the Alliance, Elia worked for the California Primary Care Association, a trade association representing community clinics and federally qualified health centers, where she oversaw the Association's health policy platform.

Ms. Gallardo's experience in the health policy sector has garnered her recognition as a National Service Award recipient recognized by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Bureau of Primary Health Care and as a Public Service Award recipient recognized by the Los Angeles County Bar Association. In 2005, Elia also received a Champions of Health Professions Diversity Award from the California Wellness Foundation. Elia attended U.C. Berkeley as an undergraduate and earned a Bachelor in Arts degree in Political Science with a minor in Spanish. She received a law degree from UCLA School of Law and has been admitted to the California State Bar.
